Congratulations to our graduates!

out-stand-ing -adjective.; standing out among others of its kind; prominent.

Congratulations to 2013 Outstanding Senior Lydia Davison!

Lydia was chosen by her teachers as a top 20 senior at Rogers High School and is among the top 65 seniors in the District! Lydia was chosen for her academic excellence, G.P.A., leadership, citizenship, volunteerism and extra-curricular involvement. Way to go Lydia!

Derek Pegram

Emerald Ridge High School

"My post high school plans include attending Green River Community College where I will pursue a degree for Professional Pilots. I also plan to minor in some sort of engineering or math degree. I have earned multiple awards related to the field of aviation and am going to continue in this field after high school. I was able to obtain my Private Pilot's License at the age of 17 and I am part of the Eagle's Nest Program that the high school participates in and is currently building a Van's RV-12 aircraft."

Best wishes Derek on your future pursuits and high flying career!

Congratulations to Rogers High School junior Paulina Davison for receiving honors from the American Association of University Women for her academic excellence in science, technology, and mathematics . This program encourages young women to seek careers in the fields of science, technology and math. Paulina's parents Peter and Julie Davison were also honored as program mentors. Congratulations to Paulina and her parents!

We are proud to announce that four seniors earned merit award scholarships from the Western Washington Native American Education Consortium. WWNAEC is an organization dedicated to furthering the educational goals of Native Youth in Western Washington. Congratulations to:

Charles Crook (Emerald Ridge)
Derek Pegram (Emerald Ridge)

Lydia Davison (Rogers)
Philip Roell (Puyallup)
