

Reading Ideas for Parents and Guardians From Your Librarians

➤ Read a book aloud

- To a stuffed animal friend
- To a sibling or relative

➤ Read a book aloud using the phone, video chat, Skype, or Facetime, etc.

Ask a parent or guardian to connect your with a family friend or relative. Read a short book to them.

➤ Visit World Book

World Book Kids is a reference website for elementary students. The site features articles, videos, comparison tools, and a wealth of engaging games and activities. There are also ebooks, scripts for plays, science experiments and much more to enjoy!

World Book--

- Early Learning is great for K/1.
- World Book Kids is perfect for 1st-4th.
- World Book Student is written at a 5th grade level and is a great challenge for upper elementary students.

Puyallup School District log-in info:

<http://worldbookonline.com>

Username: psdworldbook Password: worldbook

➤ Enjoy a story being read by a celebrity

Many favorite books are available on this site. <https://www.storylineonline.net/>

➤ Check out what's happening in space at <https://storytimefromspace.com>

This awesome website has videos of astronauts reading books while traveling through space!

➤ Make a shopping list and read it together

➤ Read your cereal box in the morning

What is your cereal made from? How much sugar is in it? What types of messages are on your cereal box?

➤ Make a fort and read inside it

➤ Read about a place you would love to visit

Why would you want to visit this place? Is it far away or close by your home?

➤ Read a book your love AGAIN

Did you know it is good for your reading skills to read the same book more than once? Pick those favorites and read, read, read.

➤ Read a book using the character's voices as you read

What does the main character sound like? How about others? Are they animals, people, monsters?