To get started on your first activity, go to "To-do activities" and press the "Start Activity" button to the right of the activity name.

The screenshot shows the Quill.org interface. At the top, there are navigation links for 'Classes', 'Resources', and a user profile 'Maya Angiou'. Below this, there are tabs for 'All classes', 'Class: Quill Classroom', and 'Teacher: Demo Teacher'. The main section is titled 'Classwork' and has two sub-tabs: 'All activities', 'To-do activities' (which is highlighted with a red box), and 'Completed activities'. Under 'To-do activities', there is a table for 'Appositive Phrases Practice 2'.

Activity	Tool	Due date
Appositives in the Middle 1	📄	Resume
Appositives in the Middle 2	📄	Resume
Appositives at the End	📄	Start
Appositives at the Beginning, Middle, or End	📄	Start

The colorful squares indicate completed activities. Green means you've mastered the skill, yellow means you're almost there, and red means you need some more practice with the skill.

The screenshot shows the 'Quill Activity Pack' interface. It has a sub-tab for 'Completed activities'. Below this, there is a table with columns for 'Activity', 'Score', 'Tool', 'Due date', and 'Completed'.
